

You better keep your hands off my XM radio. Here latley you only do things for people with money. If you keep this up you are going to start a revolution in this country and we will get rid of you and all the other greedy people up there. Leave th e XM stations alone, please.